

Auntie Karen

"empowering, enlightening & educating through the arts"

www.auntiekaren.org

AUNTIE KAREN CELEBRATES AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY

with THE COLUMBIA MUSEUM OF ART & CSAM

MAIN AND HAMPTON STREET, COLUMBIA, SOUTH CAROLINA

FREE EVENT!

February 2, 2008 - 11:00 AM -3:00 PM

11:00 AM - 3:00 PM Exhibits

The Auntie Karen Foundation

The Auntie Karen Foundation will display information and the work of select artist directly affiliated with the organization.

Auntie Karen's Young Entrepreneurs & Community Visual Artists

Skipp Pearson Foundation

Skipp Pearson Jazz Music Foundation seeks to preserve the artform of live jazz music performances of master musician. The foundation's primary mission is to foster the continued development of Jazz Music for future generations to discover and enjoy

11:30 AM -3:00 PM Music & Spoken Word

11:30 AM Skipp Pearson, Music Legend and Jazz Saxophonist

12:00 PM Peace, Vocalist (Angela Hunter)

12:20 PM Eau Claire High School Jazz Band

1:00PM Eau Claire High School Dance Ensemble, Barbara Howse-Diemer, Director

1:30 - 2:00 Negro Spirituals

Frankie Goodman, with CSAM (The Center for Southern African American Music at The University of South Carolina) will discuss the history of African American Spirituals.

Altheia Anthony will perform Negro Spirituals with an Operatic Style

2:15 PM Jazz and Jazzy Poetry sponsored by the South Carolina Poetry Initiative and Columbia Museum of Art Poet-in-Residence, Charlene Spearen

5th Annual Legends Of...Concert Series

February 22, 2008, 8:00 PM,
Koger Center, Columbia, SC
www.capitoltickets.com

The Joe Sample Trio featuring Randy Crawford

Proceeds to benefit The Auntie Karen Foundation

For more information contact:

Karen Alexander, Auntie Karen Foundation 803-748-7124
Joelle Ryan-Cook, Columbia Museum of Art 803-343-2211

CSAM (The Center for Southern African American Music at The University of South Carolina) strives to enhance the understanding of the rich musical traditions that entered this country primarily in the South. For more info visit: www.sc.edu/csam or call 803-777-0227

The Auntie Karen Foundation is a global, 501 c 3 charitable corporation certified by the state of South Carolina on October 31, 2001. The foundation's mission is to create and implement a series of reproducible community outreach programs that will empower, enlighten and educate through the arts.

Special thanks to: Dr. Linda Lane & Gwen Jordan (Auntie Karen Foundation Coordinators)

Auntie Karen

3419 Hazelhurst Rd.
Columbia, SC 29203

Tel: 803-748-7124

Fax: 803-256-6971

Email: akfoundation@aol.com