

What You Should Know Before You Go To The Auntie Karen 20th Legends of... Concert and Silent Auction

We look forward to you joining us for an unforgettable evening of music, art, and celebration at the 20th Auntie Karen Legends of... Concert and Silent Auction! Here are a few things to know before you go.

Concert Information: Join us for the 20th Auntie Karen Legends of... Concert and Silent Auction featuring performances by gospel music icons Donnie McClurkin, Marvin Sapp, and Hezekiah Walker. The evening will also include a special opening act by The Auntie Karen All-Star Band, paying tribute to female gospel music legends. All-Star Band Members: The Auntie Karen All-Star Band includes Kristen Baker, Regina Skeeters, Kenya Nelson, Anya Dixon, Akilla Johnson, Kim Sumter, Jenai Brown, Tia Spears, and Schran Clark.

VIP Reception: The VIP reception on both levels will take place from 6:00 to 7:30. Please note that VIP tickets for the reception are sold out.

Art Exhibit: Explore our art exhibit featuring "The Circus" by JRenee Arts on Level 1 and "The Jazz Series" by Rodgers Boykin on Level 2.

Parking: Parking is limited, so we encourage you to arrive early. For passenger vans, bus drivers should park in the USC parking lot next to the Greene Street Church (1106 Greene St), across the street from the FedEx building. This lot is USC lot D2, and an attendant will be available. The parking fee is $20.

Buses larger than an activity bus should park in the USC surface lot at 1708 Washington Street (USC lot AD7), located at Washington and Barnwell. Drivers will need to make their way back to the Koger Center.
